FATFACE RE-OPENS AT GLOUCESTER QUAYS

The iconic British brand returns with a new outlet store

Back in 1988, two young and enterprising Brits sold tees and sweats to fund their love of skiing - and a small business with a big heart was born. From the opening of the first FatFace store in 1993, to the welcome return of the brand to Gloucester Quays, this iconic British company continues to reach new heights with over 200 stores across the UK and Ireland.

With a range of clothing and accessories that is made to keep up with all of life's adventures, the brand's appeal to fun loving and style conscious families makes the re-opening of a FatFace outlet store in Gloucester Quays an unmissable event.

Trading from a square footage of 2,107 sq and newly fitted out for maximum sales appeal, the store will showcase the latest collections to stylish shoppers eager to save up to 70% off normal prices.

As well as bringing back more style and choice to the Quays, the new store will create over 12 full-time and part-time jobs, which is good news for people living in and around Gloucester.

"Everyone at Gloucester Quays is excited to see the return of FatFace, but it's not just us - there are thousands of people who can't wait to visit the new outlet store to find FatFace clothes and accessories at up to 70% off."

Owen Acland, Centre Manager for Gloucester Quays Peel Land & Property Group

"The reopening of FatFace at Gloucester Quays is more proof that the Quays' unique mix of outlet retailing, leisure and dining continues to be a successful and profitable formula."

Stephen Wild, Executive Director for Peel Land & Property Group

By re-opening a new store at the Quays, FatFace rejoins 50 top brands who offer stylish fashion and accessories, outdoor wear and homeware at up to 70% off the RRP.

The welcome return of FatFace confirms Gloucester Quays the 'must visit' destination for savvy shoppers in the South West.
